PERSONAL STATEMENT

Use some or all of the space on this page (but no more) to write a short account of why you wish to study your chosen degree subject, what you hope to achieve by doing so, and why you wish to come to Cambridge to do it. If your chosen university course is different from your present subjects, include a short statement about the ways in which you think your present subjects may be significant for your intended degree course. A type-written statement is acceptable.

Signature of applicant Date

Please describe below (but in no more than 2 pages) the 5 most significant activities or experiences you have engaged in or had. (They may be competitions, internships, charitable or other voluntary work, television programmes watched, books read, etc.) You should explain why they are significant and what you have learnt from them.
